can you include scriptures that speaks about being the embassodors of god and people that were the embossoders of God in the bible and what they did.

Certainly! Here are some Bible verses that speak about being ambassadors of God:

- 2 Corinthians 5:20: “Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ’s behalf: Be reconciled to God.”
- Isaiah 43:10: “You are my witnesses,” declares the Lord, “and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he. Before me no god was formed, nor will there be one after me.”
- Matthew 5:13-16: “You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.”

Here are some examples of people who were ambassadors of God in the Bible and what they did:

- Moses: Moses was called by God to lead His people out of Egypt and into the Promised Land. He was also given the Ten Commandments by God and was responsible for teaching them to the Israelites.
- Paul: Paul was a missionary who traveled throughout the Roman Empire spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ. He wrote many letters to churches and individuals, which are now part of the New Testament.
- Esther: Esther was a Jewish queen who used her position to save her people from destruction. She risked her life by approaching the king without being summoned in order to plead for her people.
- Noah: Noah was called by God to build an ark and save his family and all the animals from a great flood that would destroy the earth. He obeyed God’s commandments and was saved along with his family and all the animals.
- Elijah: Elijah was a prophet who spoke out against idolatry in Israel. He performed many miracles, including raising a widow’s son from the dead.
